

Zodiac Signs in Bed

Wild, disheveled, hot and passionate, or harmonious and sensual? Sex or lovemaking? On the beach or in the back of the car? Each zodiac sign will tick different boxes.

Zodiac signs are divided according to the elements: earth, air, water and fire, which often define character traits of individuals. We have been studying the compatibility of signs when it comes to sexual pleasure. Below you can learn more about what a certain zodiac sign is like in bed; whether they are nuts about sexy games, fetishes and trying out new things, or if they are more into gentle, sensual sex bursting with emotions and kisses.

Aries (March 21 - April 19)

These "gods of war" (Ares = Aries) do not think before they jump between the sheets - they simply put reason on hold. Aries is often more turned on by the hunt than a catch. They are very dominant, yet they do not want a submissive partner. What Aries needs is a spontaneous partner, both in life and in bed. If sex turns into a routine, they will look for a crazy ride in another lane.

Aries man in bed: He is very dominant, loud and hot! He is an excellent lover, but if you are expecting a candlelit dinner, keep looking. The Aries man likes his sex fast and a bit rough, and he is no stranger to moaning and biting. He is demanding and he expects the love of his life to be both a child and seductress, free and dependent, and always there for support. He is not a cheater, but if he gets bored, he will quickly take a hike. Besides, a little warning, Aries men can be quite selfish, but not out of bad intentions; it is just that they chase their goals with such ardor and speed that they tend to forget their companions.

Aries woman in bed: She does not associate sex with romance - she perceives sex as a purely physical act. This woman will treat a man as a piece of meat, no inhibitions. She is a bit kinky, so prepare for dirty talk and spanking. She wants to feel wanted all the time and if you can not provide her with that feeling, she will look elsewhere for attention.

Best sex positions: Aries is the "stud" among zodiac signs, we expect them to always be in the lead, so everything they say goes.

What turns them on: Caressing, tickling, ear nibbling; do whatever you want - as long as they get all your attention, you can not go wrong.

Compatibility: Libra, Lion, Gemini

Taurus (20 April - 20 May)

The Venus in Taurus is useful when it comes to love and sex. They are sensual, loyal and faithful. When they are in love, it is the highest physical and psychological pleasure in their world. Tauruses work their way to sex by using romance. This playing safe has always worked out for them. From a Taurus you can expect flowers and candlelit dinners. They do not like to rush things, in life as well as in sex.

Taurus man in bed: He is sensual, gentle but at the same time hot and passionate, he can have sex for hours on end and give his partner full satisfaction. It is well known that Taurus is hedonistic more than any other zodiac sign, so he has a list of priorities he expects his partner to fulfill. His top three priorities are cooking, enjoying the comfort of his home and sex.

Taurus woman in bed: She is gentle and has an air of sensuality around her, she loves massages as a foreplay. When she is in the mood, she can spend hours and hours with her partner in bed doing everything he desires while enjoying herself as well. They often like to spice things up in bed with delicious delights, and splendor of fragrances is their weak point.

Best sex positions: Missionary - Taurus loves the sense of intimacy it provides.

What turns them on: Nibbling and touching the neck and back

Compatibility: Virgo, Capricorn, Cancer, Pisces

Gemini (May 21 - June 20)

Gemini have a split personality or at least so it seems. They like to have fun and be in the center of attention. They like to tell stories and they are always fun to be around. They need a partner who can keep up with them. They love diversity and spontaneity. Their turn-on is having sex in places where they can be caught.

Gemini man in bed: He has two sides, and the question is which you will run into at a certain moment. Sometimes he will whisper sweet words into your ear, while other times he will rip up your clothes and order you to bend over.

Gemini woman in bed: She does not enter long-term relationships easily and quickly. She wants and needs spontaneity or she will simply break away. If the scene does not change she will change the people around her. Women born in this sign enjoy talking about sex. Prepare for something different every time.

Best sex positions: 69 - They love to give and receive pleasure at the same time.

What turns them on: Most of them like for their partner to touch their shoulders, hands and feet. If you want to make them scream, start with a massage and focus on these areas. Their hands are extremely sensitive so you can use your fingers to stimulate this area or tie them up to the bed with a ribbon and gently lick and kiss their wrists.

Compatibility: Sagittarius, Aquarius, Aries, Leo

Cancer (June 21 - July 22)

Love and sex go hand in hand for the ever so careful Cancer. They need to feel safe in a romantic relationship in order to engage in sex. Cancer is turned on by safety.

Cancer man in bed: These men are sensitive and even emotional and will often put their partner's needs before their own. The Cancer man's caring nature attracts women and they adore him as he is. He will do everything he needs to make his partner content and happy.

Cancer woman in bed: She is sexy and loves to be at home because that is where she feels the safest. She is most turned on by a family man who will compliment her with words of admiration and kisses. Give her compliments and kiss her often and a lot and she is yours forever.

Best sex positions: If you choose a partner whose zodiac sign is Cancer, forget about whips and chains. Cancer needs safety and a slow overture to sex, they are sensual, and the back is their erogenous zone - when you touch it, they go crazy with pleasure. They adore sweet goosebumps caused by their partner's touch.

What turns them on: They are most sensitive in the areas of the chest and back - they simply adore it if you touch and kiss them there. Passionately take them in your arms and hold them tight - if you are involved with a Cancer man, he will not mind if you do it a bit rough, he will love it!

Compatibility: Pisces, Taurus, Virgo

Leo (July 23 - November 22)

When it comes to Leo, prepare for a bumpy ride. People born under this sign can be quite selfish, even in the bedroom. However, they are usually interested in more than just sex. They want love and appreciation, partnership and friendship. Leo can be very romantic, and if they are in the mood, the bed is exactly the place where they will demonstrate that.

Leo man in bed: He is a good lover and hates to fall short, so expect a lot of effort on his behalf. He is very sexy and has a lot of admirers. If you make him happy he will never let you down or cheat on you. Where Aries is the "stud" of the zodiac, Leo is king, and he provides his "subjects" with the best only, because his main goal, the essence of his being, is being adored and admired.

Leo woman in bed: Her partner worships her because she is mercilessly sexy without much effort. Leo women like to play games with men and they like to be dominant, or better yet to say, rule them. The Leo woman is dangerous in bed, she knows it and she likes it.

Best Sex Positions: Leos love everything oral, they like to be taken care of with a smile

What turns them on: Leo's domain is the back, sensual massages will steam them right up

Compatibility: Aries, Gemini, Libra, Sagittarius

Virgo (August 23 - September 22)

Virgos have two personalities; the downy innocent and the troublemaker. They will convince you that they are sweet and innocent, but before you know it they will seduce you. They want a partner for a lifetime, not just for a night, and they love kissing and attention during sex.

Virgo man in bed: This gentleman lives in the clouds and seeks the perfect partner. He is prone to criticizing, but not out of bad intentions, so you should not be offended - it is just that he is a perfectionist by nature. Virgos have a kinky side to them, but they let it out only if they feel comfortable.

Virgo woman in bed: Virgo women attend to their looks a great deal. On the one hand, cleanliness and neatness are of exceptional importance to them, while on the other they fantasize about "dirty" sex. They crave the perfect lover, but they know that there is no such thing so they settle for the one that most closely fits that description. They are women of true passion.

Best sex positions: Any position that involves eye contact, they love to entice you with their eyes.

What turns them on: Their domain is under the chest, kisses all over the waist and the abdomen will drive them crazy.

Compatibility: Taurus, Capricorn, Cancer, Scorpio

Libra (September 23 - October 22)

This is the only zodiac sign in whose behavior jealousy and possessiveness are not even vaguely present and optimism and fun are their main objectives in life. This is probably because they flirt on every corner, so how could they get angry at someone for doing something they themselves so enjoy? Libra admirably balances sex appeal, knows how to be sexy and wild, while keeping aristocratic posture. Elegance is of utmost importance to Libras. As Libras constantly ponder themselves and others around them, they know exactly where, whom and how to pleasure. Libras have a reputation for being skilled lovers who hold first place when it comes to satisfying the partner's needs. But we have to warn you that the dainty Libra can be a real fox - if you do not meet their expectations in bed, they will jump right on to the next partner without a blink of an eye.

Libra man in bed: In sex he sees adventure, zest, something fun and playful, yet again so tense. Do not be surprised if he suggests that you get it on at the toilet of the fine restaurant where he took you out or if he asks that you give him a blowjob behind the bar. He simply adores the feeling that he could be caught. Libra men let their lovers take the lead. They are, after all, very romantic and are ready to try and fulfill their partner's every fantasy and have fun along the way.

Libra woman in bed: These ladies are the same in bed as their male counterparts, apart from the differences in anatomy. They want a lover who will take the lead but also take their wishes and needs into account. Between the sheets they are sexy and buoyant, and you will recognize them by lace and silk underwear that they wear so naturally.

Best sex positions: Whichever, as long as it is fun, they will do everything in their power to make you moan and scream. Expect long nights and days in bed.

What turns them on: Libra reigns over the lower part of the back and the butt, so touch, kiss or spank - they will adore it.

Compatibility: Aries, Aquarius, Leo, Sagittarius

Scorpio (October 23 - November 21)

Advisory note: Scorpios are very possessive! They feel threatened if you just glance at the person at the other end of the room. On the other hand, they are loyal, reliable and always there when you need them. People born under this sign are also really protective and prone to be the first line of defense, even though they might lose their head protecting their loved ones. Not even when they are having the worst day and are grumpy (which is often) will they belittle, insult or ridicule you. Scorpio is extremely emotional, fairly introverted, but a true friend in need. To them, knowledge is power. They also really enjoy sex and have a vast variety of playful, even dirty sexual fantasies. Tickle Scorpio's fancy with black lace and their sensuality will emerge as a volcano eruption full of burning passion.

Scorpio man in bed: He is basically made of passion, but he aptly hides it until he is relaxed enough to embark on a kissing and touching adventure with his partner. Scorpio man lives to satisfy his partner. Also, as he approaches the love nest, his introversion slowly fades and he becomes open to literally anything! These lovers should wear a weapon certificate as a sex permit - and we mean that as a compliment.

Scorpio woman in bed: Female Scorpios try to look calm and innocent, but the truth is that they are in fact the wildest gals of zodiac. They do not like playing games and spending too much time on seduction, and they are used to getting what they want. Scorpio women are exceptionally loyal partners, but if you cheat on them, they will remember it for the rest of their lives; also, they can be vindictive and vengeful.

Best sex positions: Sex is their favorite activity, so every sex position is their favorite.

What turns them on: Their domain is between the legs, they are dead shots when it comes to sex and it suits them. Dirty talk will turn them on. Prepare for a crazy ride!

Compatibility: Pisces, Virgo, Capricorn

Sagittarius (November 22 - December 21)

Sagittarii are playful and laid-back. They are really good at telling bedtime stories. In the bedroom, they are spontaneous and adventurous. When they find the right person who they feel could be their soulmate, they are devoted and loyal to the end, but only if they are sure that it is reciprocal.

Sagittarius man in bed: Although he likes to be in sync with his partner between the sheets, Sagittarius can sometimes be selfish when it comes to sex. He loves to play games in the bedroom and is turned on by cheerful women who are into some loud sexy action. He is loyal, but if sexual pleasure is denied to him, he will look elsewhere.

Sagittarius woman in bed: Notorious for their frequent mood swings and changes of heart, these ladies are difficult to follow and you can not easily decipher what they want. The only certain thing is that behind closed doors they are adventurous and open to new things. A Sagittarius woman often conceals her sexual emotions so when lovemaking is over, a man can hardly tell if she had a good time or not.

Best sex positions: Sagittarius loves to change positions and locations, from bedroom to bathroom and so on and so forth.

What turns them on: Hips and thighs are their domains. Squeeze them gently and hold them tight, exchange waves of passion at everyone's delight.

Compatibility: Gemini, Libra, Leo

Capricorn (December 22 - January 19)

Capricorns enjoy hiding their feelings and it is difficult to discern whether they are in love or not. They are distinguished for their abilities regarding good money management and household management. They like for everything, as well as their partner, to be in its place. They are calm, but if you provoke them they will lock horns with you without hesitation.

Capricorn man in bed: After a hard day's work, this man will not say "no" to sex but he will eagerly wait to finish. Do not expect too much spontaneity on his behalf, he likes to do things on his time and between his own four walls. His fantasies usually remain in his head.

Capricorn woman in bed: Unlike Capricorn men, these women are very often eager to experiment when it comes to sex. But as typical Capricorns, they want to be completely in control. The Capricorn woman objectifies men and she is not ashamed of it. Sex with her is usually good.

Best sex position: Spooning (the man is the big spoon).

What turns them on: The knees are their domain. Pay attention to this area and they will relax and give you all their attention.

Compatibility: Taurus, Virgo, Scorpio

Aquarius (January 20 - February 18)

Aquarius is the master of sexual upheavals. To them sex is an intellectual, as well as physical experience. Aquarii have commitment issues so do not force them to tell you the big "3 words, 8 letters" before they are ready. In bed, they are very entertaining and innovative. They always want to learn new things and expect the same from their partners. Most Aquarii are very impatient, hence they will not hesitate long before jumping into bed; they like to have fun, as long as it does not drag on for too long.

Aquarius man in bed: He loves to experiment, so prepare for watching pornography, role play, sex in public places, and even S & M. While impatient, Aquarius men will do their best to meet all of their partner's needs.

Aquarius woman in bed: She needs a lover who is straightforward and honest. She does not play games - to her, that is a waste of time, so do not even start with that because she will vanish into thin air. From time to time she can appear cold and distant - this happens because she tries to hide her true feelings so as not to get hurt.

Best sex positions: Mutual masturbation

What turns them on: They are extremely sensitive in the areas of calves and ankles, kisses and seductive tickling will arouse them. Do not, however, touch them under the ankles.

Compatibility: Libra, Gemini, Sagittarius

Pisces (February 19 - March 20)

Pisces put all their effort into pleasing their partner. For them, sex is the ultimate romantic experience and they are extremely emotional. They are in love with romance and they sometimes behave like soap opera characters. Often jealous Pisces are deeply affected by all of their partner's actions and reactions.

Pisces man in bed: He is a romantic, gentle and excellent lover. To him, sex is lovemaking and he enjoys it. He performs slowly and with great attention to detail, and in serious relationships he puts his soul and body into this act.

Pisces woman in Bed: She loves, needs and breathes romance! A man who begins the evening with a glass of fine wine accompanied by light music and ends it with caressing and kissing will sweep her off her feet. She has a deep need to be loved and adored, but only by the person she loves. Once she truly loves someone she will fulfill all the needs of her beloved.

Best sex position: Any position that allows for lovemaking filled with passionate and long kisses.

What turns them on: The feet are their domain, and they love to have them soaked, massaged, caressed, and even tickled.
